

Interest of the digital avatar in the management of cleft lip and palate sequelae

Authors :

Julie Longis¹, Thibaud Casas^{1,2}

Institutions :

¹ Clinique de Stomatologie et Chirurgie Maxillo-Faciale, CHU de Nantes, France

² Pratique libérale, Nantes, France

Abstract:

The exceptional development of digital technologies has made it possible to develop tools for creating a virtual clone of the patient. The collection of digital data allows surgeons, dentists and orthodontists to complete the clinical examination, to compile paraclinical investigations and to plan treatments. Dialogue with patients and between practitioners is facilitated by this data. Cleft lip and palate sequelae are a perfect example of the value of this digital avatar in complex multidisciplinary management.